

Module 2: Law of Obligations

27.10.2020
Istanbul, Turkey

The Chartered Institute of Arbitrators European Branch

What is the aim of the course? & Who should attend?

The aim of the course is to provide an understanding of the relevant principles in the law of tort and the law of contract in the context of how disputes may arise and be resolved. This course is designed to consider both common and civil law jurisdictional principles to give a solid grounding to all practitioners. This course is suitable for anyone with a general interest in dispute resolution and is essential for individuals who wish to go on to become qualified Arbitrators. It is also suitable for those from either system of law wishing to improve or refresh their knowledge of the more unfamiliar system of law.

What is covered within the syllabus?

- Contract: Types of contract; formation of a valid contract; content of contract; vitiating factors; privity and third parties; discharge of a contract; limitations; agency; disputes
- Tort: Primary and vicarious liability; occupiers' liability; direct and indirect interference; remedies: damages, injunctions.

How is the course delivered?

The course is delivered over a period of six months, with a combination of private study and attendance of the four face-to-face tutorials.

Course tutor

Dr. Karen Akinci, FCI Arb
Burcu Osmanoğlu, LL.M., FCI Arb

Course director

Dr. Karen Akinci, FCI Arb

Course assessment

4 hour closed-book examination. Examinations by centralised assessment. Not included in the course fee. Must be registered and paid for separately

Course fee

The course fee is € 600 per participant.

*This course can be cancelled provided that the number of participants is below 10.

Registration

Participants are requested to complete the Registration Form and return it to neslihankepici@akincilaw.com.