

Mediation Symposium 2020

CI Arb
evolving to resolve

Redesigning the curriculum

Redesigning the mediation curriculum

Vassiliki Koumpli;

Mediator MCI Arb Mediation Trainer

Redesigning the mediation curriculum

CI Arb
evolving to resolve

Towards a multidisciplinary mediation curriculum?

SUCCESS FACTORS

Redesigning the mediation curriculum

CI Arb
evolving to resolve

Training's legitimate goals

Redesigning the mediation curriculum

CI Arb
evolving to resolve

Should training and accreditation be legally mandatory?

Redesigning the mediation curriculum

CI Arb
evolving to resolve

Institutions providing training

- e.g. universities, licenced providers etc.
- role of bar associations and law schools

Redesigning the mediation curriculum

CI Arb
evolving to resolve

Qualifications of instructors

- academic degrees
- specific training ('train the trainer')
- professional experience

Redesigning the mediation curriculum

CI Arb
evolving to resolve

Content of the curriculum

- mediation concepts, principles, law and practice
- obligations law, family law etc.
- basic skills and techniques (negotiation strategies, effective communication, emotions management, cross-cultural elements etc.)

Redesigning the mediation curriculum

CI Arb
evolving to resolve

Duration of mediation training

Redesigning the mediation curriculum

CI Arb
evolving to resolve

Virtual mediation training challenges & opportunities

Redesigning the mediation curriculum

CI Arb
evolving to resolve

Examination and accreditation institutions

- training providers
- third neutral bodies
- state authorities (e.g. Ministry of Justice)

Redesigning the mediation curriculum

CI Arb
evolving to resolve

Further training requirements

Redesigning the mediation curriculum

CI Arb
evolving to resolve

Conclusion

CI Arb
evolving to resolve

www.ciarb.org

