Module 2 Law of Obligations - Virtual Delivery

What is the aim of the course?

To provide an understanding of the relevant principles in the law of tort and the law of contract in the context of how disputes may arise and be resolved. This course is designed to consider both common and civil law jurisdictional principles to give a solid grounding to all practitioners.

This course is intended for individuals who may not have studied law previously and wish to gain an understanding of the elements of the law of obligations that affect matters in civil and commercial disputes in a variety of different jurisdictions. It is suitable for anyone with a general interest in dispute resolution and is essential for individuals who wish to go on to become qualified Arbitrators, Adjudicators or Mediators. It is also suitable for those from either system of law wishing to improve or refresh their knowledge of the more unfamiliar system of law.

What are the learning outcomes?

On successful completion of this course, candidates will be able to demonstrate sound conceptual, technical and/or practical knowledge of:

- the sources of law and demonstrate how these are used in a common/civil law,
- the nature and significance of the different types of obligations,
- the ability to evaluate and apply contractual and tortious remedies,
- analytical skills on problems using the law of contract and the law of tort.

What is covered within the syllabus?

Contract:

- Types of contract
- Formation of a valid contract
- Content of contract
- Vitiating factors
- Privity and third parties
- Discharge of a contract
- Limitations
- Agency
- Disputes

Tort:

- Primary and vicarious liability
- Negligence
- Damage
- Occupiers' liability
- Direct and indirect interference
- Defences
- Limitations
- Remedies: damages, injunctions

How is the course delivered?

The course is delivered over a period of six months, with a combination of private study and ten virtual tutorials.

The course date advertised is the start date of the course when candidates will be required to start their private study of reading NOT when they attend tutorials. The virtual tutorial dates are listed on the Course Schedule.

How will I be assessed?

This assessment is completed via LearnADR, CIArb's online learning platform. Candidates will be given 48 consecutive hours within a 5-day window to submit their answers online. Candidates must achieve a minimum overall mark of 65% to pass the assessment.

Assessment of this course is split into two parts:

- Contract: counts as 65% towards the overall mark
- Tort: counts as 35% towards the overall mark

The assessment fee is not included in the course fee. It must be registered and paid for separately. The assessment fee is £342 inclusive of VAT.

What are the entry requirements?

- Candidates must have successfully completed and passed Module 1 – Law, Practice and Procedure
- Applicants who have a recognised law degree or practicing law certificate may be eligible for the Module 2 Online Exemption Test

English Language Competence - CIArb training and assessment is carried out in English. It is therefore essential that candidates are proficient in both written and spoken English. Where English is not a candidate's first language, it is recommended that they have achieved a standard that is, as a minimum, equivalent to the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) level 7 or a score of 94-101 in the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) system. CIArb issues this advice as a guideline and, while it will not require any evidence of this standard prior to enrolment on a course, candidates who do not have this standard of English may be disadvantaged.

What is the course fee and what does it include?

The course fee is £1080 inclusive of VAT. The fee includes registration on the course, access to virtual classrooms and study materials.

What happens when I register for the course?

Upon successful registration on the course, candidates will receive confirmation they are booked on the course. Candidates will receive login details to access their course materials via LearnADR approximately 2 weeks before the course start date on the condition that 70% of the course fee has been received. The balance is payable before the course start date.

What is CIArb's policy on cancellation of courses?

CIArb reserves the right to cancel or change the date, venue or content of programmes and the names of speakers, lecturers and tutors. Candidates will be provided with adequate notice of any change. If CIArb has to cancel a course, candidates will be provided with a full refund or the opportunity to transfer their registration to the next course. Should a candidate wish to cancel their registration of a course, notification must be received in writing to education@ciarb.org. Cancellation charges apply. Please refer to the Fee Terms and Conditions.
