How is the course delivered?

The course is delivered over 1 day. The day starts at 9.30am to 5.00pm.

How will I be assessed?

Assessment of this course is completed through an online multiple-choice test accessed via LearnADR, CI Arb's online learning platform. Candidates will be given 28 days to complete and submit the assessment. Candidates must achieve a minimum overall mark of 55% to pass the course.

Results are made available to candidates immediately upon completion of the assessment. The assessment fee is not included in the course fee. It must be registered and paid for separately. The assessment fee is £72 inclusive of VAT.

What are the entry requirements?

There are no entry requirements. The course is intended for candidates who:

- are new to the field of International Arbitration,
- wish to learn more about International Arbitration and its benefits to users,
- wish to become an Associate member of CI Arb.

English Language Competence - CI Arb training and assessment is carried out in English. It is therefore essential that candidates are proficient in both written and spoken English. Where English is not a candidate's first language, it is recommended that they have achieved a standard that is, as a minimum, equivalent to the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) level 7 or a score of 94-101 in the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) system. CIArb issues this advice as a guideline and, while it will not require any evidence of this standard prior to enrolment on a course, candidates who do not have this standard of English may be disadvantaged.

What is the course fee and what does it include?

The course fee is RM2,200. The fee includes registration on the course, study materials and lunch and refreshments throughout the day.

What happens when I register for the course?

Upon successful registration on the course, candidates will receive confirmation they are booked on the course. Candidates will receive their course materials approximately 2 weeks before the course start date.

What is CIArb's policy on cancellation of courses?

CIArb reserves the right to cancel or change the date, venue or content of programmes and the names of speakers, lecturers and tutors. Candidates will be provided with adequate notice of any change. If CIArb has to cancel a course, candidates will be provided with a full refund or the opportunity to transfer their registration to the next course. Should a candidate wish to cancel/defer their registration of a course, notification must be received in writing to ciarbmb@gmail.com. Deferral charges apply.
