CIArb ARBITRATION RULES

INTRODUCTION

The Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (“CIArb”) last revised its Arbitration Rules in 2000. When considering how to update its rules, the CIArb recognised that the 2010 version of the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules (“UNCITRAL Rules”) provide a comprehensive set of procedural rules which are widely used for ad hoc international arbitrations and which can be adopted by arbitral institutions who wish to act as appointing authority.

The CIArb has decided that, instead of drafting a completely new set of rules, it would adopt the UNCITRAL Rules with itself as the appointing authority. Additionally, the CIArb has adapted the UNCITRAL Rules to include waiver of the parties’ right of appeal, provisions for emergency arbitrators and a checklist of suggested matters to be considered at the case management conference.

The emergency arbitrator provisions incorporated in the CIArb Arbitration Rules apply automatically to arbitrations where the arbitration agreement was entered into on or after 1 December 2015, unless the parties expressly opt out. Accordingly, where parties wish to avoid the application of the emergency arbitrator provisions, it is recommended that they specify in their arbitration agreement that “the emergency arbitrator rules shall not apply”. The emergency arbitrator provisions apply to arbitration agreements entered into before 1 December 2015 only if the parties expressly opt in.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

1 — Scope of application

The CIArb Arbitration Rules may be adopted in an arbitration agreement entered into at any time before or after a dispute has arisen, which provides that any dispute between the parties shall be referred to arbitration in accordance with these Rules. These Rules are effective as of 1 December 2015. They supersede and replace the CIArb Arbitration Rules (2000 edition) and can be used in both domestic and international arbitral proceedings.

2 — Services offered by the CIArb

The CIArb Arbitration Rules stipulate that the CIArb will be the appointing authority and provide the following services:

- a) appointment of arbitrators, including emergency arbitrators;
- b) decisions on challenges to arbitrators;
- c) replacement of arbitrators; and
- d) fund-holding services.

3 — Applications and challenges

Both applications for the appointment of an arbitrator and requests for a decision on challenges to arbitrators pursuant to the CIArb Arbitration Rules may be submitted by post, fax or email to:

CIArb ARBITRATION RULES

Section I. Introductory rules

Article 1 — Scope of application

1. Where parties have agreed that disputes between them in respect of a defined legal relationship, whether contractual or not, shall be referred to arbitration under the CIArb Arbitration Rules (“the Rules”) then such disputes shall be settled in accordance with these Rules subject to such modification as the parties may agree.
2. These Rules shall come into force on 1 December 2015 and, unless the parties have agreed otherwise, shall apply to all arbitrations falling within article 1.1 in which the notice of arbitration is submitted on or after that date.
3. These Rules shall govern the arbitration except that, where any of these Rules are in conflict with a provision of the law applicable to the arbitration from which the parties cannot derogate, such a provision shall prevail.
4. All communications with and applications to the CIArb under these Rules shall be in English. The CIArb may request from the parties a translation of any document written in a language other than English, where such document is required for the CIArb to fulfil its mandate under these Rules.
5. In these Rules:
 - a) “arbitral tribunal” or “tribunal” includes one or more arbitrators;
 - b) “award” includes, inter alia, an interim, partial, costs or final award;
 - c) “CIArb” means the “Chartered Institute of Arbitrators”.

Chartered Institute of Arbitrators

The functions of the CI Arb under the arbitration agreement shall be performed in its name by the President or Deputy President of the CI Arb;

- d) “claim” or “claims” includes any claim, counterclaim, or claim for set-off by any party against any other party;
- e) “DAS” means “Dispute Appointment Service of the CI Arb”;
- f) “party” or “parties” includes claimants, respondents and other persons subject to the jurisdiction of the tribunal; and
- g) “place of arbitration” means the seat of arbitration.

Article 2 — Notice and calculation of periods of time

1. A notice, including a notification, communication or proposal, may be transmitted by any means of communication that provides or allows for a record of its transmission.
2. If an address has been designated by a party specifically for this purpose or authorised by the arbitral tribunal, any notice shall be delivered to that party at that address, and if so delivered shall be deemed to have been received. Delivery by electronic means such as facsimile or e-mail may only be made to an address so designated or authorised.
3. In the absence of such designation or authorisation, a notice is:
 - a) received if it is physically delivered to the addressee; or
 - b) deemed to have been received if it is delivered at the place of business, habitual residence or mailing address of the addressee.
4. If, after reasonable efforts, delivery cannot be effected in accordance with paragraphs 2 or 3, a notice is deemed to have been received if it is sent to the addressee's last-known place of business, habitual residence or mailing address by registered letter or any other means that provides a record of delivery or of attempted delivery.

Arbitration Rules

5. A notice shall be deemed to have been received on the day it is delivered in accordance with paragraphs 2, 3 or 4, or attempted to be delivered in accordance with paragraph 4. A notice transmitted by electronic means is deemed to have been received on the day it is sent, except that a notice of arbitration so transmitted is only deemed to have been received on the day when it reaches the addressee's electronic address.
6. For the purpose of calculating a period of time under these Rules, such period shall begin to run on the day following the day when a notice is received. If the last day of such period is an official holiday or a non-business day at the residence or place of business of the addressee, the period is extended until the first business day which follows. Official holidays or non-business days occurring during the running of the period of time are included in calculating the period.

Article 3 — Notice of arbitration

1. The party or parties initiating recourse to arbitration (hereinafter called the "claimant") shall communicate to the other party or parties (hereinafter called "the respondent") a notice of arbitration.
2. Arbitral proceedings shall be deemed to commence on the date on which the notice of arbitration is received by the respondent.
3. The notice of arbitration shall include the following:
 - a) a demand that the dispute be referred to arbitration;

Chartered Institute of Arbitrators

- b) the names and contact details of the parties;
 - c) identification of the arbitration agreement that is invoked;
 - d) identification of any contract or other legal instrument out of or in relation to which the dispute arises or, in the absence of such contract or instrument, a brief description of the relevant relationship;
 - e) a brief description of the claim and an indication of the amount involved, if any;
 - f) the relief or remedy sought; and
 - g) a proposal as to the number of arbitrators, language and place of arbitration, if the parties have not previously agreed thereon.
4. The notice of arbitration may also include:
- a) a proposal for the appointment of a sole arbitrator referred to in article 8, paragraph 1;
 - b) notification of the appointment of an arbitrator referred to in article 9 or 10.
5. The constitution of the arbitral tribunal shall not be hindered by any controversy with respect to the sufficiency of the notice of arbitration, which shall be finally resolved by the arbitral tribunal.

Article 4 — Response to the notice of arbitration

1. Within 30 days of the receipt of the notice of arbitration, the respondent shall communicate to the claimant a response to the notice of arbitration, which shall include:
- a) the name and contact details of each respondent; and

Arbitration Rules

- b) a response to the information set forth in the notice of arbitration, pursuant to article 3, paragraphs 3 (c) to (g).
2. The response to the notice of arbitration may also include:
- a) any plea that an arbitral tribunal to be constituted under these Rules lacks jurisdiction;
 - b) a proposal for the appointment of a sole arbitrator referred to in article 8, paragraph 1;
 - c) notification of the appointment of an arbitrator referred to in article 9 or 10;
 - d) a brief description of counterclaims or claims for the purpose of a set-off, if any, including where relevant, an indication of the amounts involved, and the relief or remedy sought;
 - e) a notice of arbitration in accordance with article 3 in case the respondent formulates a claim against a party to the arbitration agreement other than the claimant.
3. The constitution of the arbitral tribunal shall not be hindered by any controversy with respect to the respondent's failure to communicate a response to the notice of arbitration, or an incomplete or late response to the notice of arbitration, which shall be finally resolved by the arbitral tribunal.

Article 5 — Representation and assistance

Each party may be represented or assisted by persons chosen by it. The names and addresses of such persons must be communicated to all parties and to the arbitral tribunal. Such communication must specify whether the appointment is being made for the purposes of representation or assistance. Where a person is to act as a representative of a party, the arbitral tribunal, on its own initiative or at the request of any party, may at any time require proof of authority granted to the representative in such a form as the arbitral tribunal may determine.

Article 6 — Appointing authority

1. Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, the CI Arb shall perform the functions of the appointing authority and provide the services as set out in these Rules.
2. The CI Arb shall be entitled to charge administrative fees for its services as set out in Appendix III to these Rules as in force at the date of commencement of the arbitration and any amendment thereto or substitution thereof during the course of the arbitration.
3. In exercising its functions under these Rules, the CI Arb may require from any party and the arbitrators the information it deems necessary and it shall give the parties and, where appropriate, the arbitrators, an opportunity to present their views in any manner it considers appropriate. All such communications to and from the CI Arb shall also be provided by the sender to all other parties.
4. Any party wishing to request the CI Arb to appoint an arbitrator pursuant to articles 8, 9, 10, 14 or 26 or to request a decision on a challenge to an arbitrator pursuant to article 13, paragraph 4 or article 3, paragraph 2 of Appendix I, shall complete the relevant application form available on the CI Arb's website and send it to DAS by post, fax or email to the postal address, fax number or email address referred to in the application form. The request shall be accompanied by copies of the notice of arbitration and, if it exists, any response to the notice of arbitration and any other relevant documents or information specified in the application form.

5. The CIArb shall have regard to such considerations that are likely to secure the appointment of an impartial and independent arbitrator and shall take into account the advisability of appointing an arbitrator of a nationality other than the nationalities of the parties.

Section II. Composition of the arbitral tribunal

Article 7 — Number of arbitrators

1. If the parties have not previously agreed on the number of arbitrators, and if within 30 days after the receipt by the respondent of the notice of arbitration the parties have not agreed that there shall be only one arbitrator, three arbitrators shall be appointed.
2. Notwithstanding paragraph 1, if no other parties have responded to a party's proposal to appoint a sole arbitrator within the time limit provided for in paragraph 1 and the party or parties concerned have failed to appoint a second arbitrator in accordance with article 9 or 10, the CIArb may, at the request of a party, appoint a sole arbitrator pursuant to the procedure provided for in article 8, paragraph 2, if it determines that, in view of the circumstances of the case, this is more appropriate.

Appointment of arbitrators (articles 8 to 10)

Article 8

1. If the parties have agreed that a sole arbitrator is to be appointed and if within 30 days after receipt by all other parties of a proposal for the appointment of a sole arbitrator the parties have not reached agreement thereon, a sole arbitrator shall, at the request of a party, be appointed by the CIArb.
2. The CIArb shall appoint the sole arbitrator as promptly as possible. In making the appointment, the CIArb shall use the following list-procedure, unless the parties agree that the list-procedure should not be used or unless the CIArb determines in its discretion that the use of the list-procedure is not appropriate for the case:
 - a) the CIArb shall communicate to each of the parties an identical list containing at least three names;
 - b) within 15 days following receipt of the list, each party shall return the list to the CIArb after having deleted the name or names to which it objects and numbered the remaining names on the list in the order of its preference;
 - c) after the expiration of the above period, the CIArb shall make its appointment from among the names approved on the lists returned to it and in accordance with the order of preference indicated by the parties;
 - d) if for any reason the appointment cannot be made according to this procedure, the CIArb may repeat the procedure or appoint the arbitrator without further recourse to the parties.

3. The request to appoint an arbitrator submitted to the CI Arb shall be accompanied by payment of the appointment fee, by cheque or transfer to the bank account of the CI Arb, as required in Appendix III in force on the date when the request is filed with the CI Arb. If the applicant fails to pay the required fee upon filing a request for appointment of an arbitrator or any deadline set by the CI Arb, the CI Arb shall decline to proceed with the request and shall inform the parties that it has closed the file without prejudice to the claimant's right to submit the same claim(s) at a later stage. The appointment fee is not refundable.
4. Arbitrators are usually selected from the CI Arb's Presidential Panel of Arbitrators. However, the CI Arb may appoint an arbitrator who is not on the CI Arb's Presidential Panel of Arbitrators if it considers, in its sole discretion, that it is appropriate to do so.

Article 9

1. If three arbitrators are to be appointed, each party shall appoint one arbitrator. The two arbitrators thus appointed shall choose the third arbitrator who will act as the presiding arbitrator of the arbitral tribunal.
2. If within 30 days after the receipt of a party's notification of the appointment of an arbitrator the other party has not notified the first party of the arbitrator it has appointed, the first party may request the CI Arb to appoint the second arbitrator.
3. If within 30 days after the appointment of the second arbitrator the two arbitrators have not agreed on the presiding arbitrator, the presiding arbitrator shall be appointed by the CI Arb in the same way as a sole arbitrator would be appointed under article 8.

Chartered Institute of Arbitrators

Article 10

1. For the purposes of article 9, paragraph 1, where three arbitrators are to be appointed and there are multiple parties as claimant or as respondent, unless the parties have agreed to another method of appointment of arbitrators, the multiple parties jointly, whether as claimant or as respondent, shall appoint an arbitrator.
2. If the parties have agreed that the arbitral tribunal is to be composed of a number of arbitrators other than one or three, the arbitrators shall be appointed according to the method agreed upon by the parties.
3. In the event of any failure to constitute the arbitral tribunal under these Rules, the CI Arb shall, at the request of any party, constitute the arbitral tribunal and, in doing so, may revoke any appointment already made and appoint or reappoint each of the arbitrators and designate one of them as the presiding arbitrator.

Disclosures by and challenges to arbitrators (articles 11 to 13)

Article 11

When a person is approached in connection with his or her possible appointment as an arbitrator, he or she shall disclose any circumstances likely to give rise to justifiable doubts as to his or her impartiality or independence. An arbitrator, from the time of his or her appointment and throughout the arbitral proceedings, shall without delay disclose any such circumstances to the parties and the other arbitrators unless they have already been informed by him or her of these circumstances.

Article 12

1. Any arbitrator may be challenged if circumstances exist that give rise to justifiable doubts as to the arbitrator's impartiality or independence.
2. A party may challenge the arbitrator appointed by it only for reasons of which it becomes aware after the appointment has been made.
3. In the event that an arbitrator fails to act or in the event of the de jure or de facto impossibility of his or her performing his or her functions, the procedure in respect of the challenge to an arbitrator as provided in article 13 shall apply.

Article 13

1. A party that intends to challenge an arbitrator shall send notice of its challenge within 15 days after it has been notified of the appointment of the challenged arbitrator, or within 15 days after the circumstances mentioned in articles 11 and 12 became known to that party.
2. The notice of challenge shall be communicated to all other parties, to the arbitrator who is challenged, to the other arbitrators and to the CI Arb. The notice of challenge shall state the reasons for the challenge.
3. When an arbitrator has been challenged by a party, all parties may agree to the challenge. The arbitrator may also, after the challenge, withdraw from his or her office. In neither case does this imply acceptance of the validity of the grounds for the challenge.
4. If, within 15 days from the date of the notice of challenge, all parties do not agree to the challenge or the challenged arbitrator does not withdraw, the party making the challenge may elect to pursue it. In that case, within 30 days from the date of the notice of challenge, it shall seek a decision on the challenge by the CI Arb.

5. The request to make a decision on the challenge submitted to the CI Arb shall be accompanied by payment of an administrative fee, by cheque or transfer to the bank account of the CI Arb, as required in Appendix III in force on the date when the request is filed. The CI Arb shall not make a decision until such a fee is paid. The CI Arb shall not give reasons for its decision on challenges and such a decision shall be final.

Article 14 — Replacement of an arbitrator

1. Subject to paragraph 2, in any event where an arbitrator has to be replaced during the course of the arbitral proceedings, a substitute arbitrator shall be appointed or chosen pursuant to the procedure provided for in articles 8 to 11 that was applicable to the appointment or choice of the arbitrator being replaced. This procedure shall apply even if during the process of appointing the arbitrator to be replaced, a party had failed to exercise its right to appoint or to participate in the appointment.
2. If, at the request of a party, the CI Arb determines that, in view of the exceptional circumstances of the case, it would be justified for a party to be deprived of its right to appoint a substitute arbitrator, the CI Arb may, after giving an opportunity to the parties and the remaining arbitrators to express their views, appoint the substitute arbitrator.

Article 15 — Repetition of hearings in the event of the replacement of an arbitrator

If an arbitrator is replaced, the proceedings shall resume at the stage where the arbitrator who was replaced ceased to perform his or her functions, unless the arbitral tribunal decides otherwise.

Article 16 — Exclusion of liability

Save for intentional wrongdoing, the parties waive, to the fullest extent permitted under the applicable law, any claim against the arbitral tribunal, any emergency arbitrator, the CIArb, including the President, the Deputy President and its employees, and any person appointed by the arbitral tribunal or the emergency arbitrator based on any act or omission in connection with the arbitration.

Section III. Arbitral proceedings

Article 17 — General provisions

1. Subject to these Rules, the arbitral tribunal may conduct the arbitration in such manner as it considers appropriate, provided that the parties are treated with equality and that at an appropriate stage of the proceedings each party is given a reasonable opportunity of presenting its case. The arbitral tribunal, in exercising its discretion, shall conduct the proceedings so as to avoid unnecessary delay and expense and to provide a fair and efficient process for resolving the parties' dispute.
2. As soon as practicable after its constitution and after inviting the parties to express their views, the arbitral tribunal shall establish the provisional timetable of the arbitration. It may also address the matters contained in

Appendix II to these Rules. The arbitral tribunal may, at any time, after inviting the parties to express their views, extend or abridge any period of time prescribed under these Rules or agreed by the parties.

3. If at an appropriate stage of the proceedings any party so requests, the arbitral tribunal shall hold hearings for the presentation of evidence by witnesses, including expert witnesses, or for oral argument. In the absence of such a request, the arbitral tribunal shall decide whether to hold such hearings or whether the proceedings shall be conducted on the basis of documents and other materials.
4. All communications to the arbitral tribunal by one party shall be communicated by that party to all other parties. Such communications shall be made at the same time, except as otherwise permitted by the arbitral tribunal if it may do so under applicable law.
5. The arbitral tribunal may, at the request of any party, allow one or more third persons to be joined in the arbitration as a party provided such person is a party to the arbitration agreement, unless the arbitral tribunal finds, after giving all parties, including the person or persons to be joined, the opportunity to be heard, that joinder should not be permitted because of prejudice to any of those parties. The arbitral tribunal may make a single award or several awards in respect of all parties so involved in the arbitration.

Article 18 — Place of arbitration

1. If the parties have not previously agreed on the place of arbitration, the place of arbitration shall be determined by the arbitral tribunal having regard to the circumstances of the case. The award shall be deemed to have been made at the place of arbitration.

2. The arbitral tribunal may meet at any location it considers appropriate for deliberations. Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, the arbitral tribunal may also meet at any location it considers appropriate for any other purpose, including hearings.

Article 19 — Language

1. Subject to an agreement by the parties, the arbitral tribunal shall, promptly after its appointment, determine the language or languages to be used in the proceedings. This determination shall apply to the statement of claim, the statement of defence, and any further written statements and, if oral hearings take place, to the language or languages to be used in such hearings.
2. The arbitral tribunal may order that any documents annexed to the statement of claim or statement of defence, and any supplementary documents or exhibits submitted in the course of the proceedings, delivered in their original language, shall be accompanied by a translation into the language or languages agreed upon by the parties or determined by the arbitral tribunal.

Article 20 — Statement of claim

1. The claimant shall communicate its statement of claim in writing to the respondent and to each of the arbitrators within a period of time to be determined by the arbitral tribunal. The claimant may elect to treat its notice of arbitration referred to in article 3 as a statement of claim, provided that the notice of arbitration also complies with the requirements of paragraphs 2 to 4 of this article.

2. The statement of claim shall include the following particulars:
 - a) the names and contact details of the parties;
 - b) a statement of the facts supporting the claim;
 - c) the points at issue;
 - d) the relief or remedy sought; and
 - e) the legal grounds or arguments supporting the claim.
3. A copy of any contract or other legal instrument out of or in relation to which the dispute arises and of the arbitration agreement shall be annexed to the statement of claim.
4. The statement of claim should, as far as possible, be accompanied by all documents and other evidence relied upon by the claimant, or contain references to them.

Article 21 — Statement of defence

1. The respondent shall communicate its statement of defence in writing to the claimant and to each of the arbitrators within a period of time to be determined by the arbitral tribunal. The respondent may elect to treat its response to the notice of arbitration referred to in article 4 as a statement of defence, provided that the response to the notice of arbitration also complies with the requirements of paragraph 2 of this article.
2. The statement of defence shall reply to the particulars (b) to (e) of the statement of claim (article 20, paragraph 2). The statement of defence should, as far as possible, be accompanied by all documents and other evidence relied upon by the respondent, or contain references to them.

3. In its statement of defence, or at a later stage in the arbitral proceedings if the arbitral tribunal decides that the delay was justified under the circumstances, the respondent may make a counterclaim or rely on a claim for the purpose of a set-off provided that the arbitral tribunal has jurisdiction over it.
4. The provisions of article 20, paragraphs 2 to 4, shall apply to a counterclaim, a claim under article 4, paragraph 2 (e), and a claim relied on for the purpose of a set-off.

Article 22 — Amendments to the claim or defence

During the course of the arbitral proceedings, a party may amend or supplement its claim or defence, including a counterclaim or a claim for the purpose of a set-off, unless the arbitral tribunal considers it inappropriate to allow such amendment or supplement having regard to the delay in making it or prejudice to other parties or any other circumstances. However, a claim or defence, including a counterclaim or a claim for the purpose of a set-off, may not be amended or supplemented in such a manner that the amended or supplemented claim or defence falls outside the jurisdiction of the arbitral tribunal.

Article 23 — Pleas as to the jurisdiction of the arbitral tribunal

1. The arbitral tribunal shall have the power to rule on its own jurisdiction, including any objections with respect to the existence or validity of the arbitration agreement. For that purpose, an arbitration clause that forms part of a contract shall be treated as an agreement independent of the other terms of the contract. A decision by the arbitral tribunal that the contract is null shall not entail automatically the invalidity of the arbitration clause.

2. A plea that the arbitral tribunal does not have jurisdiction shall be raised no later than in the statement of defence or, with respect to a counterclaim or a claim for the purpose of a set-off, in the reply to the counterclaim or to the claim for the purpose of a set-off. A party is not precluded from raising such a plea by the fact that it has appointed or participated in the appointment of an arbitrator. A plea that the arbitral tribunal is exceeding the scope of its authority shall be raised as soon as the matter alleged to be beyond the scope of its authority is raised during the arbitral proceedings. The arbitral tribunal may, in either case, admit a later plea if it considers the delay justified.
3. The arbitral tribunal may rule on a plea referred to in paragraph 2 either as a preliminary question or in an award on the merits. The arbitral tribunal may continue the arbitral proceedings and make an award, notwithstanding any pending challenge to its jurisdiction before a court.

Article 24 — Further written statements

The arbitral tribunal shall decide which further written statements, in addition to the statement of claim and the statement of defence, shall be required from the parties or may be presented by them and shall fix the periods of time for communicating such statements.

Article 25 — Periods of time

The periods of time fixed by the arbitral tribunal for the communication of written statements (including the statement of claim and statement of defence) should not exceed 45 days. However, the arbitral tribunal may extend the time limits if it concludes that an extension is justified.

Arbitration Rules

Article 26 — Emergency relief and interim measures

1. Any party in need of conservatory or urgent interim measures prior to the constitution of the arbitral tribunal may file an application with the CIArb seeking the appointment of an emergency arbitrator pursuant to the procedures set forth in Appendix I to these Rules.
2. The arbitral tribunal may, at the request of a party, grant interim measures.
3. An interim measure is any temporary measure by which, at any time prior to the issuance of the award by which the dispute is finally decided, the arbitral tribunal orders a party, for example and without limitation, to:
 - a) maintain or restore the status quo pending the determination of the dispute;
 - b) take action that would prevent, or refrain from taking action that is likely to cause (i) current or imminent harm or (ii) prejudice to the arbitral process itself;
 - c) provide a means of preserving assets out of which a subsequent award may be satisfied; or
 - d) preserve evidence that may be relevant and material to the resolution of the dispute.
4. The party requesting an interim measure under paragraphs 3 (a) to (c) shall satisfy the arbitral tribunal that:

- a) harm not adequately reparable by an award of damages is likely to result if the measure is not ordered, and such harm substantially outweighs the harm that is likely to result to the party against whom the measure is directed if the measure is granted; and
 - b) there is a reasonable possibility that the requesting party will succeed on the merits of the claim. The determination on this possibility shall not affect the discretion of the arbitral tribunal in making any subsequent determination.
5. With regard to a request for an interim measure under paragraph 3 (d), the requirements in paragraphs 4 (a) and (b) shall apply only to the extent that the arbitral tribunal considers appropriate.
 6. The arbitral tribunal may modify, suspend or terminate an interim measure it has granted, upon application of any party or, in exceptional circumstances and upon prior notice to the parties, on the arbitral tribunal's own initiative.
 7. The arbitral tribunal may require the party requesting an interim measure to provide appropriate security in connection with the measure.
 8. The arbitral tribunal may require any party promptly to disclose any material change in the circumstances on the basis of which the interim measure was requested or granted.
 9. The party requesting an interim measure may be liable for any costs and damages caused by the measure to any party if the arbitral tribunal later determines that, in the circumstances then prevailing, the measure should not have been granted. The arbitral tribunal may award such costs and damages at any point during the proceedings.

Arbitration Rules

10. A request for interim measures addressed by any party to a judicial authority shall not be deemed incompatible with the agreement to arbitrate or as a waiver of that agreement.

Article 27 — Evidence

1. Each party shall have the burden of proving the facts relied on to support its claim or defence.
2. Witnesses, including expert witnesses, who are presented by the parties to testify to the arbitral tribunal on any issue of fact or expertise may be any individual, notwithstanding that the individual is a party to the arbitration or in any way related to a party. Unless otherwise directed by the arbitral tribunal, statements by witnesses, including expert witnesses, may be presented in writing and signed by them.
3. At any time during the arbitral proceedings the arbitral tribunal may require the parties to produce documents, exhibits or other evidence within such a period of time as the arbitral tribunal shall determine.
4. The arbitral tribunal shall determine the admissibility, relevance, materiality and weight of the evidence offered.

Article 28 — Hearings

1. In the event of an oral hearing, the arbitral tribunal shall give the parties adequate advance notice of the date, time and place thereof.
2. Witnesses, including expert witnesses, may be heard under the conditions and examined in the manner set by the arbitral tribunal.

3. Hearings shall be held in camera unless the parties agree otherwise. The arbitral tribunal may require the retirement of any witness or witnesses, including expert witnesses, during the testimony of such other witnesses, except that a witness, including an expert witness, who is a party to the arbitration shall not, in principle, be asked to retire.
4. The arbitral tribunal may direct that witnesses, including expert witnesses, be examined through means of telecommunication that do not require their physical presence at the hearing (such as videoconference).

Article 29 — Experts appointed by the arbitral tribunal

1. After consultation with the parties, the arbitral tribunal may appoint one or more independent experts to report to it, in writing, on specific issues to be determined by the arbitral tribunal. A copy of the expert's terms of reference, established by the arbitral tribunal, shall be communicated to the parties.
2. The expert shall, in principle before accepting appointment, submit to the arbitral tribunal and to the parties a description of his or her qualifications and a statement of his or her impartiality and independence. Within the time ordered by the arbitral tribunal, the parties shall inform the arbitral tribunal whether they have any objections as to the expert's qualifications, impartiality or independence. The arbitral tribunal shall decide promptly whether to accept any such objections. After an expert's appointment, a party may object to the expert's qualifications, impartiality or independence only if the objection is for reasons of which the party becomes aware after the appointment has been made. The arbitral tribunal shall decide promptly what, if any, action to take.

3. The parties shall give the expert any relevant information or produce for his or her inspection any relevant documents or goods that he or she may require of them. Any dispute between a party and such expert as to the relevance of the required information or production shall be referred to the arbitral tribunal for decision.
4. Upon receipt of the expert's report, the arbitral tribunal shall communicate a copy of the report to the parties, which shall be given the opportunity to express, in writing, their opinion on the report. A party shall be entitled to examine any document on which the expert has relied in his or her report.
5. At the request of any party, the expert, after delivery of the report, may be heard at a hearing where the parties shall have the opportunity to be present and to interrogate the expert. At this hearing, any party may present expert witnesses in order to testify on the points at issue. The provisions of article 28 shall be applicable to such proceedings.

Article 30 — Default

1. If, within the period of time fixed by these Rules or the arbitral tribunal, without showing sufficient cause:
 - a) the claimant has failed to communicate its statement of claim, the arbitral tribunal shall issue an order for the termination of the arbitral proceedings, unless there are remaining matters that may need to be decided and the arbitral tribunal considers it appropriate to do so;

- b) the respondent has failed to communicate its response to the notice of arbitration or its statement of defence, the arbitral tribunal shall order that the proceedings continue, without treating such failure in itself as an admission of the claimant's allegations; the provisions of this subparagraph also apply to a claimant's failure to submit a defence to a counterclaim or to a claim for the purpose of a set-off.
- 2. If a party, duly notified under these Rules, fails to appear at a hearing, without showing sufficient cause for such failure, the arbitral tribunal may proceed with the arbitration.
- 3. If a party duly invited by the arbitral tribunal to produce documents, exhibits or other evidence fails to do so within the established period of time, without showing sufficient cause for such failure, the arbitral tribunal may make the award on the evidence before it.

Article 31 — Closure of hearings

- 1. The arbitral tribunal may inquire of the parties if they have any further proof to offer or witnesses to be heard or submissions to make and, if there are none, it may declare the hearings closed.
- 2. The arbitral tribunal may, if it considers it necessary owing to exceptional circumstances, decide, on its own initiative or upon application of a party, to reopen the hearings at any time before the award is made.

Article 32 — Waiver of right to object

A failure by any party to object promptly to any non-compliance with these Rules or with any requirement of the arbitration agreement shall be deemed to be a waiver of the right of such a party to make such an objection, unless such party can show that, under the circumstances, its failure to object was justified.

Arbitration Rules

Section IV. The award

Article 33 — Decisions

1. When there is more than one arbitrator, any award or other decision of the arbitral tribunal shall be made by a majority of the arbitrators.
2. In the case of questions of procedure, when there is no majority or when the arbitral tribunal so authorises, the presiding arbitrator may decide alone, subject to revision, if any, by the arbitral tribunal.

Article 34 — Form and effect of the award

1. The arbitral tribunal may make separate awards on different issues at different times.
2. All awards shall be made in writing and shall be final and binding on the parties. The parties shall carry out all awards without delay. By adopting these Rules, the parties waive their right to any form of appeal or recourse to a court or other judicial authority insofar as such waiver is valid under the applicable law.
3. The arbitral tribunal shall state the reasons upon which the award is based, unless the parties have agreed that no reasons are to be given.
4. An award shall be signed by the arbitrators and it shall contain the date on which the award was made and indicate the place of arbitration. Where there is more than one arbitrator and any of them fails to sign, the award shall state the reason for the absence of the signature.

5. An award may be made public with the consent of all parties or where and to the extent disclosure is required of a party by legal duty, to protect or pursue a legal right or in relation to legal proceedings before a court or other competent authority.
6. Copies of the award signed by the arbitrators shall be communicated to the parties and the CIArb by the arbitral tribunal.

Article 35 — Applicable law, amiable compositeur

1. The arbitral tribunal shall apply the rules of law designated by the parties as applicable to the substance of the dispute. Failing such designation by the parties, the arbitral tribunal shall apply the law which it determines to be appropriate.
2. The arbitral tribunal shall decide as amiable compositeur or ex aequo et bono only if the parties have expressly authorised the arbitral tribunal to do so.
3. In all cases, the arbitral tribunal shall decide in accordance with the terms of the contract, if any, and shall take into account any usage of trade applicable to the transaction.

Article 36 — Settlement or other grounds for termination

1. If, before the award is made, the parties agree on a settlement of the dispute, the arbitral tribunal shall either issue an order for the termination of the arbitral proceedings or, if requested by the parties and accepted by the arbitral tribunal, record the settlement in the form of an arbitral award on agreed terms. The arbitral tribunal is not obliged to give reasons for such an award.

Arbitration Rules

2. If, before the award is made, the continuation of the arbitral proceedings becomes unnecessary or impossible for any reason not mentioned in paragraph 1, the arbitral tribunal shall inform the parties of its intention to issue an order for the termination of the proceedings. The arbitral tribunal shall have the power to issue such an order unless there are remaining matters that may need to be decided and the arbitral tribunal considers it appropriate to do so.
3. Copies of the order for termination of the arbitral proceedings or of the arbitral award on agreed terms, signed by the arbitrators, shall be communicated by the arbitral tribunal to the parties and the CI Arb. Where an arbitral award on agreed terms is made, the provisions of article 34, paragraphs 2, 4 and 5 shall apply.

Article 37 — Interpretation of the award

1. Within 30 days after the receipt of the award, a party, with notice to the other parties, may request that the arbitral tribunal give an interpretation of the award.
2. The interpretation shall be given in writing within 45 days after the receipt of the request. The interpretation shall form part of the award and the provisions of article 34, paragraphs 2 to 6 shall apply.

Article 38 — Correction of the award

1. Within 30 days after the receipt of the award, a party, with notice to the other parties, may request the arbitral tribunal to correct in the award any error in computation, any clerical or typographical error, or any error or omission of a similar nature. If the arbitral tribunal considers that the request is justified, it shall make the correction within 45 days of receipt of the request.

2. The arbitral tribunal may within 30 days after the communication of the award make such corrections on its own initiative.
3. Such corrections shall be in writing and shall form part of the award.
The provisions of article 34, paragraphs 2 to 6, shall apply.

Article 39 — Additional award

1. Within 30 days after the receipt of the termination order or the award, a party, with notice to the other parties, may request the arbitral tribunal to make an award or an additional award as to claims presented in the arbitral proceedings but not decided by the arbitral tribunal.
2. If the arbitral tribunal considers the request for an award or additional award to be justified, it shall render or complete its award within 60 days after the receipt of the request. The arbitral tribunal may extend, if necessary, the period of time within which it shall make the award.
3. When such an award or additional award is made, the provisions of article 34, paragraphs 2 to 6, shall apply.

Article 40 — Definition of costs

1. The arbitral tribunal shall fix the costs of arbitration in the final award and, if it deems appropriate, in another decision.
2. The term “costs” includes only:
 - a) the fees of the arbitral tribunal to be stated separately as to each arbitrator and to be fixed by the tribunal itself in accordance with article 41;

Arbitration Rules

- b) the reasonable travel and other expenses incurred by the arbitrators;
 - c) the reasonable costs of expert advice and of other assistance required by the arbitral tribunal;
 - d) the reasonable travel and other expenses of witnesses to the extent that such expenses are approved by the arbitral tribunal;
 - e) the legal and other costs incurred by the parties in relation to the arbitration to the extent that the arbitral tribunal determines that the amount of such costs is reasonable;
 - f) any fees and expenses of the CI Arb.
3. In relation to interpretation, correction or completion of any award under articles 37 to 39, the arbitral tribunal may charge the costs referred to in paragraphs 2 (b) to (f), but no additional fees.

Article 41 — Fees and expenses of arbitrators

- 1. The fees and expenses of the arbitrators shall be reasonable in amount, taking into account the amount in dispute, the complexity of the subject matter, the time spent by the arbitrators and any other relevant circumstances of the case.
- 2. Promptly after its constitution, the arbitral tribunal shall inform the parties as to how it proposes to determine its fees and expenses, including any rates it intends to apply.
- 3. When informing the parties of the arbitrators' fees and expenses that have been fixed pursuant to article 40, paragraphs 2 (a) and (b), the arbitral tribunal shall also explain the manner in which the corresponding amounts have been calculated.

4. The arbitral tribunal shall proceed with the arbitration, in accordance with article 17, paragraph 1.

Article 42 — Allocation of costs

1. The costs of the arbitration shall in principle be borne by the unsuccessful party or parties. However, the arbitral tribunal may apportion each of such costs between the parties if it determines that apportionment is reasonable, taking into account the circumstances of the case.
2. The arbitral tribunal shall in the final award or, if it deems appropriate, in any other award, determine any amount that a party may have to pay to another party as a result of the decision on allocation of costs.

Article 43 — Deposit of costs

1. The arbitral tribunal, on its establishment, may request the parties to deposit an equal amount as an advance for the costs referred to in article 40, paragraphs 2 (a) to (c).
2. During the course of the arbitral proceedings, the arbitral tribunal may request supplementary deposits from the parties.
3. If the required deposits are not paid in full within 30 days after the receipt of the request, the arbitral tribunal shall so inform the parties in order that one or more of them may make the required payment. If such a payment is not made, the arbitral tribunal may order the suspension or termination of the arbitral proceedings.

Arbitration Rules

4. After a termination order or final award has been made, the arbitral tribunal shall render an accounting to the parties of the deposits received and return any unexpended balance to the parties.

APPENDICES

Appendix I

Emergency arbitrator rules

Article 1 — Application for emergency measures

1. Should there arise circumstances of extraordinary urgency before the arbitral tribunal has been constituted, a party may, after a notice of arbitration has been received by the respondent, submit an application to the CIArb and to all other parties seeking the appointment of an emergency arbitrator pending the constitution of the arbitral tribunal.
2. Subject to the applicable law, an application for the appointment of an emergency arbitrator may seek orders, including, but not limited to:
 - a) maintain or restore the status quo pending the determination of the dispute;
 - b) take action that would prevent, or refrain from taking action that is likely to cause (i) current or imminent harm or (ii) prejudice to the arbitral process itself;
 - c) provide a means of preserving assets out of which a subsequent award may be satisfied; or
 - d) preserve evidence that may be relevant and material to the resolution of the dispute.
3. The application shall contain the following information:
 - a) the names of the parties, their legal counsel or representatives, their phone numbers, postal addresses, e-mail addresses, and fax numbers;
 - b) a copy of the parties' arbitration agreement;
 - c) a statement certifying that all other parties to the arbitration have been notified of the application or an explanation of the steps taken to notify such parties;

Chartered Institute of Arbitrators

- d) a description of the parties' dispute, including any currently known claims or counterclaims for relief and the amount or value thereof;
- e) the applicant's position, if any, regarding the place of the emergency proceedings, the language(s) of the proceedings and any procedural or substantive laws pertaining to the proceedings;
- f) a full statement of the specific relief sought in the application;
- g) a statement as to why the applicant's request for emergency relief cannot await the constitution of the arbitral tribunal;
- h) a statement regarding whether and, if so, why (i) harm not adequately reparable by an award of damages is likely to result if the measure is not ordered, and such harm substantially outweighs the harm that is likely to result to the party against whom the measure is directed if the measure is granted; and (ii) there is a reasonable possibility that the applicant will succeed on the merits of the claim.

The determination on this possibility shall not affect the discretion of the arbitral tribunal in making any subsequent determination.

4. The application for emergency measures submitted to the CI Arb shall be accompanied by payment of the appointment fee, by cheque or transfer to the bank account of the CI Arb as required in Appendix III in force on the date when the application is filed with the CI Arb. If the appointment fee is not paid upon making the said application, the CI Arb shall dismiss the application for emergency relief and inform the parties accordingly.

Arbitration Rules

The appointment fee is not refundable.

5. The application may contain additional information or any other documents that may contribute to an efficient and fair consideration of the application.
6. Emergency arbitrator rules shall not apply if either (i) the parties have concluded their arbitration agreement before 1 December 2015 and the parties have not agreed in writing to “opt in” to the emergency arbitrator rules; or (ii) the parties have agreed in writing at any time to “opt out” of the emergency arbitrator rules.

Article 2 — Appointment of an emergency arbitrator

1. The CIArb shall appoint an emergency arbitrator unless:
 - a) the CIArb determines that the application fails to demonstrate that the parties have agreed that these Rules apply to the parties’ dispute; or
 - b) the applicant has failed to demonstrate that an emergency arbitrator should be appointed under these Rules.
2. The CIArb shall endeavour to appoint an emergency arbitrator within two business days following receipt of both the application and the appointment fee, and shall forthwith notify the parties of such appointment and contemporaneously provide to the emergency arbitrator and to the other parties complete copies of the applicant’s application for emergency relief and of the notice of arbitration to the extent that such notice has not been communicated to those parties.
3. No emergency arbitrator may be appointed after the arbitral tribunal has been constituted.

4. Upon the appointment of an emergency arbitrator, the applicant shall forthwith communicate with the remaining parties for the purpose of attempting to reach an agreement regarding the emergency application, and the parties shall jointly report to the emergency arbitrator the results of any such communications between or among the parties.
5. Unless the parties otherwise agree, the emergency arbitrator shall not serve as a member of the arbitral tribunal.

Article 3 — Challenges to and replacement of emergency arbitrators

1. The provisions of these Rules regarding impartiality and independence shall apply to emergency arbitrators, except that the prospective emergency arbitrator shall provide the parties with all required disclosures within one day after the date of the appointment.
2. Within one business day of receipt of the emergency arbitrator's disclosures and statement of impartiality and independence, any party may challenge the arbitrator's appointment on the grounds set forth in these Rules for challenges to arbitrators. The CI Arb shall endeavour to decide and resolve any such challenge within two business days thereafter. The request to make a decision on the challenge submitted to the CI Arb shall be accompanied by payment of an administrative fee, by cheque or transfer to the bank account of the CI Arb, as required in Appendix III in force on the date when the request is filed. The CI Arb shall not make a decision until such a fee is paid. The CI Arb shall not give reasons for its decision on challenges and such a decision shall be final.

3. Should an emergency arbitrator die, resign, or otherwise be removed, the CIArb shall endeavour to appoint a replacement emergency arbitrator within the time provided in these Rules for the appointment of an emergency arbitrator. Other Rules relating to disclosures and written statements to be made by an emergency arbitrator and to challenges to emergency arbitrators shall apply with respect to the replacement of an emergency arbitrator. Should an emergency arbitrator be replaced, the new emergency arbitrator shall determine whether to resume the emergency proceedings at the stage at which the original emergency arbitrator ceased performing such functions or recommence the proceedings.

Article 4 — The place and language(s) of emergency proceedings, jurisdiction and arbitrability issues

1. The emergency arbitrator shall have the authority to decide issues relating to jurisdictional challenges, including issues regarding the arbitrability of the parties' dispute as well as the meaning and intent of the parties' arbitration agreement.
2. In the absence of a clear and complete agreement between the parties regarding the place and language(s) of the emergency proceedings, the emergency arbitrator shall have the authority to determine the place and language(s) of the emergency proceedings.
3. Any determination by the emergency arbitrator regarding jurisdictional challenges, arbitrability issues and/or the place and language(s) of the emergency proceedings shall not prejudice the arbitral tribunal's authority to subsequently determine those issues.

4. Emergency arbitrator proceedings are not intended to prevent any party from seeking urgent interim or conservatory measures from a competent judicial authority at any time.

Article 5 — The emergency proceedings

1. The emergency arbitrator, if possible in cooperation with the parties, shall, as soon as possible and preferably within two days of being appointed, establish a schedule for the conduct of the emergency proceedings.
2. The emergency arbitrator may conduct the emergency proceedings in any manner the emergency arbitrator determines to be appropriate under the circumstances, including through a hearing by telephonic or electronic communication.

Article 6 — Emergency orders and awards

1. The emergency arbitrator shall endeavour to decide the issues raised in the application as soon as possible and preferably no later than 15 days following the emergency arbitrator's appointment, taking due care to ensure that all parties are afforded notice and a reasonable opportunity to be heard. The deadline may be extended only in exceptional circumstances or by the written agreement of all parties to the emergency proceedings. The emergency arbitrator has no further power to act after the arbitral tribunal has been constituted.
2. In deciding the issues raised in the application, the emergency arbitrator shall take into consideration all circumstances of the case, including any applicable law regarding the applicant's right to be granted the requested relief and the arbitrator's authority to grant such a relief.

Arbitration Rules

3. In granting an application for emergency relief, the emergency arbitrator may impose such conditions as the emergency arbitrator deems necessary, including requiring that the applicant provide appropriate security in connection with the relief granted.
4. The emergency arbitrator shall issue a written order or award that states all of the following:
 - a) the date on which it was issued and the place of the emergency proceedings;
 - b) the basis for the emergency arbitrator's jurisdiction;
 - c) the reasons for the decision; and
 - d) the allocation among the parties of the responsibility for the costs associated with the application for emergency relief and the emergency proceedings, subject to the authority of the arbitral tribunal to make a final determination and apportionment of such costs.
5. The emergency arbitrator shall promptly deliver a signed copy of the written order or award to each of the parties and to the CI Arb.
6. By agreeing to resolve their dispute pursuant to these Rules, the parties agree to comply without delay with any such order or award.
7. Prior to the constitution of the arbitral tribunal, the emergency arbitrator shall, after providing the parties with notice and an opportunity to be heard, have the authority to amend or revoke, for a good cause, or on the emergency arbitrator's own initiative, any emergency order or award issued by the emergency arbitrator.

8. A party that requests and is granted emergency relief shall be obliged to disclose immediately to the parties, the emergency arbitrator or the arbitral tribunal, as the case may be, any material change in the circumstances that served as the basis for the request or the granting of such relief.
9. Any order or award issued by the emergency arbitrator, including an award of costs, may be modified or confirmed by the arbitral tribunal, and, in the absence of such a modification or confirmation, shall automatically expire and no longer be in effect 15 days following the constitution of the arbitral tribunal. Such an order or award also shall immediately expire:
 - a) if the CIArb accepts a challenge to the emergency arbitrator or the parties agree to such a challenge;
 - b) if the order or award is amended or revoked by the emergency arbitrator prior to the formation of the arbitral tribunal;
 - c) if the claimant withdraws its notice of arbitration without the agreement of the remaining parties prior to the formation of the arbitral tribunal;
 - d) upon the issuance of a final award by the arbitral tribunal, unless the arbitral tribunal decides otherwise; or
 - e) if the arbitral tribunal has not been constituted within 120 days from the date of the emergency order or award.

Arbitration Rules

Article 7 — Costs of the emergency arbitrator proceedings

1. Upon being appointed, the emergency arbitrator shall inform the applicant as to how the emergency arbitrator proposes to determine the relevant fees and expenses, including any rates the emergency arbitrator intends to apply. The emergency arbitrator shall also specify a payment on a bank account to be made by the applicant, with an explanation as to the basis upon which this amount has been calculated, and shall indicate the period of time within which the payment should be made. If such a payment is not made in full and within the specified period of time, the emergency arbitrator may dismiss the emergency proceedings, in which case the emergency arbitrator shall inform the CI Arb accordingly.
2. At the end of the proceedings, the emergency arbitrator shall render an accounting of the fees and expenses incurred, and return any unexpended balance to the applicant.

Appendix II

Matters for potential consideration by the parties and the arbitral tribunal at the case management conference

In determining the matters to be addressed at the case management conference, the arbitral tribunal and the parties should take into account the size of the parties' claims and the complexity of the dispute. The following checklist identifies matters that the arbitral tribunal and the parties might address at the conference. The list below may be supplemented or modified by either of them in light of the subject matter and issues involved in the case:

1. Applicable arbitration rules

- a) any dispute regarding the meaning or applicability of the Rules;
- b) any agreements by the parties to opt out of, or modify, any of the applicable Rules.

2. Place of arbitration and applicable procedural law

Any dispute or agreement regarding what arbitration law applies to the proceedings.

3. Applicable substantive law

Any dispute or agreement regarding what substantive law governs the parties' dispute.

4. Language(s), translation and interpretation

- a) any dispute or agreement regarding the language(s) of the arbitration proceedings;
- b) any need for translation of documents or the use of interpreters in

Arbitration Rules

hearings or conferences, and, if so, when and how any of these arrangements will be made and paid for.

5. Tribunal's fees and expenses

Arrangements for the payment of the arbitrators' fees and costs pursuant to article 41.

6. Deposits of costs

Any issues concerning the payment and administration of advance deposits covering arbitrators' fees and expenses.

7. Tribunal's jurisdiction

Any dispute regarding the arbitral tribunal's jurisdiction to decide the issues presented by the parties in their claims, counterclaims and defences.

8. Tribunal's impartiality and independence

- a) whether the parties wish to raise any unwaived matters regarding the arbitrators' availability, impartiality and independence;
- b) the possible adoption of any guidelines or protocols dealing with conflicts of interest.

9. Interim measures

Whether either party anticipates seeking interim or conservatory measure and, if so, when a request for either type of relief should be filed.

10. Any pending litigation relating to the claims and defences

Any pending litigation relating in any way to the claims, counterclaims and defences asserted in the arbitration proceedings.

11. Representation

The possible adoption of any specific guidelines or protocols dealing with party representation.

12. Confidentiality

Any confidentiality or trade secret concerns that will require particular measures to protect confidential or proprietary information.

13. Communications with the tribunal

The use of electronic means of communication in submissions to the arbitral tribunal and any other communication among the parties and the arbitral tribunal.

14. Defining issues (and early disposition)

- a) any threshold or dispositive issues that can be decided efficiently early in the proceedings through the issuance of one or more partial awards;
- b) the possible adoption, with respect to the granting of partial dispositive relief, of any specific guidelines or protocols dealing with early disposition of issues.

15. Bifurcation

The possible bifurcation of the proceedings.

16. ADR mechanisms

Whether the parties have considered attempting to either settle or resolve their dispute through any other alternative dispute resolution mechanism.

17. Written submissions and exhibits

- a) the need for submission of a more detailed or amended statement of claim, counterclaim, or defence;
- b) any limitations on the length or scope of written submissions;
- c) any arrangements that may be made for real-time stenography, electronically searchable transcripts, electronically available and searchable exhibits and briefs containing electronic links to transcript pages, exhibits and authorities;
- d) the potential use of summary exhibits intended to supplement or serve as a substitute for voluminous exhibits or collective exhibits.

18. Evidence in international arbitration

The possible adoption of any rules, guidelines or protocols dealing with the taking of evidence in international arbitration.

19. Production of documents

- a) whether and to what extent the parties will exchange requests for production of documents;
- b) in the event that the parties are to exchange requests for documents, deadlines for objecting to specific requests, for the filing of objections relating to the sufficiency of document production, for responses to such objections, and for a hearing date on such objections should the arbitral tribunal conclude that an oral hearing would be useful;
- c) a possible requirement that the parties confer in good faith and attempt to agree on the production of documents and other information prior to seeking a ruling from the arbitral tribunal that certain documents or information should be disclosed;

- d) whether the parties wish to agree on a specific standard for the disclosure of documents, in the absence of which the arbitral tribunal shall apply to all document and information requests a standard of materiality of such documents and information to any claim or defence;
- e) any issues relating to the production of electronically stored information, including how costs are to be borne for searches for requested information or documents, and how those issues should be resolved.

20. Site inspection

Whether the parties anticipate the need for a site inspection by the arbitral tribunal or a tribunal-appointed expert, and, if so, when the inspection should be conducted and under what procedure.

21. Witnesses and expert witnesses

- a) counsels' communications with witnesses in the course of testimony;
- b) the possibility that the parties might be able to resolve certain issues with the involvement of their experts;

Arbitration Rules

iii. an award with a full statement of supporting reasons.

29. Any other business

Any other matter the arbitral tribunal or the parties may wish to address, including the use of any other guidelines and/or protocols where appropriate.

Following the case management conference, the arbitral tribunal should promptly issue a written order memorialising decisions made and agreements reached in the conference. The order should include, but not be limited to, a timetable setting forth pertinent deadlines, action dates and other scheduling matters dealt with at the conference. In the interest of efficiency and of ensuring a fair and orderly process, the arbitral tribunal may later alter the timetable after consulting with the parties.

Appendix III

Administrative fees and deposits

Article 1 — Appointment fee

Each request for the appointment of an arbitrator or an emergency arbitrator pursuant to these Rules must be accompanied by a non-refundable fee.* This amount shall represent the total cost of the appointment of one arbitrator by the CI Arb. The CI Arb shall not proceed with the appointment unless the specified payment has been received.

Article 2 — Challenge fee

Each application to the CI Arb for challenge of an arbitrator shall be accompanied by a non-refundable fee.* The CI Arb shall not proceed with the decision unless the specified payment has been received.

Article 3 — Administration of deposits

The CI Arb is to hold any deposits paid to it by the parties in a separate bank account which is solely used for, and clearly identified as relating to, the arbitral proceedings in question. The deposit service, including settlement of account, shall be accompanied by a non-refundable fee.*

* For current fees, please refer to the CI Arb's website, i.e. www.ciarb.org.

Appendix IV

Model statements of impartiality and independence pursuant to article 11 of the Rules

No circumstances to disclose

I am impartial and independent of each of the parties and intend to remain so. To the best of my knowledge, there are no circumstances, past or present, likely to give rise to justifiable doubts as to my impartiality or independence. I shall promptly notify the parties and the other arbitrators of any such circumstances that may subsequently come to my attention during this arbitration.

Circumstances to disclose

I am impartial and independent of each of the parties and intend to remain so. Attached is a statement made pursuant to article 11 of these Rules of (a) my past and present professional, business and other relationships with the parties and (b) any other relevant circumstances regarding [include statement]. I confirm that those circumstances do not affect my impartiality and independence. I shall promptly notify the parties and the other arbitrators of any such further relationships or circumstances that may subsequently come to my attention during this arbitration.*

* Any party may consider requesting from the arbitrator the following addition to the statement of impartiality and independence:

I confirm, on the basis of the information presently available to me, that I can devote the time necessary to conduct this arbitration diligently, efficiently and in accordance with the time limits set out in these Rules.

MODEL ARBITRATION CLAUSES

The following model clauses may be adopted by the parties to a contract who wish to have any future disputes referred to arbitration under the CIArb Arbitration Rules:

Model arbitration clauses for contracts

1. Model arbitration clause with emergency arbitrator rules

Any dispute, controversy, or claim arising out of or in connection with this contract, or the breach, termination or validity thereof, shall be submitted to the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (CIArb) and settled by final and binding arbitration in accordance with the CIArb Arbitration Rules. Judgment on any award issued under this provision may be entered by any court of competent jurisdiction.

2. Model arbitration clause excluding the emergency arbitrator rules

Any dispute, controversy, or claim arising out of or in connection with this contract, or the breach, termination or validity thereof, shall be submitted to the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (CIArb) and settled by final and binding arbitration in accordance with the CIArb Arbitration Rules, except that the emergency arbitrator rules shall not apply. Judgment on any award issued under this provision may be entered by any court of competent jurisdiction.

Post-dispute arbitration submission agreement

We, the undersigned parties, hereby agree that the dispute concerning [insert a brief and accurate description of the dispute] shall be submitted to the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (CIArb) and settled by final and binding arbitration in accordance with the CIArb Arbitration Rules. Judgment on any award issued under this provision may be entered by any court of competent jurisdiction.

Recommended additional provisions

Parties may consider the following additional provisions:

1. Appointment of arbitrators
The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of [one or three] arbitrator(s).
2. Appointment of sole arbitrator [choose one of the following clauses]:
 - a) A sole arbitrator shall be appointed by agreement of the parties. If the parties have not agreed on the appointment of a sole arbitrator within 30 days of the respondent's receipt of a notice of arbitration, then, at the request of one of the parties, a sole arbitrator shall be appointed by the CI Arb.
 - b) A sole arbitrator shall be appointed by the CI Arb.
3. Appointment of three arbitrators [choose one of the following clauses]:
 - a) Each party shall be entitled to appoint an arbitrator and the two party-appointed arbitrators shall then appoint a third arbitrator. If either party fails to appoint an arbitrator within 30 days of receiving notice of the appointment of an arbitrator by the other party, the CI Arb shall, at the request of either party, appoint an arbitrator on behalf of the defaulting party. If the first and second arbitrator appointed fail to agree upon a third arbitrator within 30 days of the appointment of the second arbitrator, the third arbitrator shall, at the request of either party, be appointed by the CI Arb.

Arbitration Rules

b) A three-member tribunal shall be appointed by agreement of the parties. If the parties have not agreed on the appointment of the three arbitrators within 30 days of the respondent's receipt of a notice of arbitration, then, at the request of one of the parties, CI Arb shall appoint each of the arbitrators and shall designate one of them as the presiding arbitrator.

c) A three-member tribunal shall be appointed by the CI Arb.

4. Place of arbitration and applicable procedural law

The place of arbitration shall be [choose city and country]. The proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the arbitration law of the place of the arbitration.

5. Language(s) of arbitration

The language(s) of the arbitration proceedings shall be [choose language(s)].

6. Law governing the contract

The contract shall be governed by [choose one of the following]:

a) the substantive law of [choose country]; or

b) the substantive law of [choose country], exclusive of any conflict-of-laws rules that could require the application of any other law.

7. Law governing the arbitration agreement

The arbitration agreement shall be governed by [choose the relevant law].
