

Module 2

Law of Obligations Contract & Tort

STARTING 29TH OCTOBER 2019 - DOHA, QATAR

CI Arb
evolving to resolve

Objective

- To provide an understanding of the relevant principles in the Law of Tort and Law of Contract in the context of how disputes may arise and be resolved
- This course is designed to consider both common and civil law jurisdictional principles to give a solid grounding to all practitioners

Learning Outcomes

- The sources of law and demonstrate how these are used in a common/civil law
- The nature and significance of the different types of obligations
- The ability to evaluate and apply contractual and tortious remedies
- Analytical skills on problems using the Law of Contract and the Law of Tort

Course Delivery

- Combination of private study, attendance of four face-to-face tutorials and a revision tutorial
- Duration: 6 months

Requirements

- Successful completion of Module 1 – Law, Practice and Procedure
- Law degree or practicing law certificate may be eligible for the Module 2 online exemption test
- Proficiency in written and spoken English

Assessment

- Contract: 2½ hour closed-book examination (65% of the overall mark)
- Tort: 1½ hour closed-book examination (35% of the overall mark)

Fees

- Course fee: QAR 4,995
(inclusive of registration fees, study materials, lunch and refreshments)
- Examination fee: QAR 1630

Registration

For more information and to register please contact:

- Shaun Whitlock - shaun.whitlock@qgs.global
- Shaun Crawley - seconsult@hotmail.co.uk