

RESTATEMENT OF THE LAW

The U.S. Law of International Commercial and Investor-State Arbitration

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 2019

1:30 p.m. – 6:30 p.m.

The Reporters of the Restatement of the U.S. Law of International Commercial and Investor-State Arbitration will lead panel discussions on key issues that were the focus of debate or controversy during its decade-long development.

The speakers will address matters of practical concern to arbitration practitioners and will explain how certain issues were resolved to serve the interests of clarity, predictability and, in some instances, the promotion of best practices in international arbitration in the United States, including:

- “Delegation” of gateway issues
- Forum non conveniens
- Interim measures as arbitral awards
- Grounds for vacatur of awards made in the U.S.
- Arbitration on a class basis
- Manifest disregard of law
- Discovery under 28 U.S.C. § 1782
- Arbitral immunity
