FINANCIAL AID POLICY (COMPREHENSIVE COURSE ONLY)

Full-time law students and New York-admitted attorneys seeking a hardship scholarship should (a) register on-line using the registration link provided above or using a registration form available upon request,* and (b) separately complete their registration by submitting a scholarship request, no later than May 18, 2020, to education@ciarbny.org. Requests should detail in a few sentences the basis of the applicant's need and the background supporting his or her interest. The course directors may request additional information to complete the scholarship request. Please understand that without a completed scholarship request, the applicant may be notified that the scholarship registration has been canceled and the request denied. All completed requests will be considered.

Attendees are responsible to arrange and pay for their own travel, lodging and related expenses, and for all meals not specified in this brochure.

* If you are unable to complete registration and payment on-line, please write to treasurer@ciarbny.org to request registration by e-mail or mail and payment by wire transfer.
